What has helped give your child a happy and successful start at Moat Farm Juniors?

Information pack and meeting before the term started
 Induction day/meeting the teacher
 Friendly, patient staff
 Warm, welcoming atmosphere
 Academic challenges
 Lots of help and support from all staff
 Having friends from previous class with her
 Being able to visit the school numerous times before my son started
 Changing class - she has become more confident day by day
 He is happy and enjoying himself - he loves it!
 Knowing that if she has a problem she can talk to her teacher and they will help.
 Different kinds of things she has learnt in school
 Enjoys doing his homework - before he struggled to get started
 House points and MF value bands
 Knowing her sisters were happy and comfortable at the school.
 Mrs. Barnett working with my child pastorally
 Fun lessons, learns a lot and even likes P.E. which she hated before.
 Making new friends
 Homework

"My daughter loves her teacher. She always comes home happy and loves to come to school."

"His teacher seems more human than others I have met, he is laid back but professional."

"I have been extremely impressed with Mr Darby he supports each individual child."

"Mr. Darby is a wonderful teacher and has really helped my daughter settle in."

"Consistency is a massive thing for my child and direction in the right manner and tone...This is the first time in 4years my son has been happy to come to school and not fight me to go home. Mrs. Rowley has been amazing...thank you to Mrs. Rowley and Ms. Stone for listening to me as a parent but most of all for looking after my son and giving him his confidence back in school."

"Mr. Darby is a great teacher, he is very welcoming and gentle with the kids. He is more of a friend than a teacher which has helped my child settle well."

What could we improve?

Everything is wonderful here!

Maths

Daily diary for SEN 1:1 pupil

Nothing, we are happy with the school atmosphere and the way of teaching.

Initially being able to sit in class with his friend from his previous class

Nothing from what I can see, you are doing a great job!

More after school club – music, art and dance

Remind the pupils to change their books

Monthly update on the progress of my child

More art work

More homework

Support for parents to help children complete maths homework

More information about lessons to children and parents

Fantastic so far, can't think of any improvements!
